

Commitment to Children

I hereby pledge the following:

- I will never abuse or neglect any child
- If I suspect a child is being abused or neglected, I will immediately contact my local or state Child Protective Services (CPS) agency
- I will bless my own children with ample supervision, interaction, and care, as well as unconditional love
- I will continually pursue ways to enhance my parenting knowledge and skills
- I will donate at least some of my time or money every year to help a child or children in need
- I will exercise great patience and understanding with any distressed child in my care
- I will do my best to help any distressed child in my care get through the grief cycle and will not give up on that child at the first sign of difficulty
- I will live each day with love as my guide

My signature below affirms my commitment to children. This is an irrevocable contract with myself:
